

2018 SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY “Jaguar Preview” High School Day

The Southern University Alumni Federation – Houston Chapter is pleased to announce the annual High School Day on “Scotts Bluff”, the Baton Rouge campus, on Saturday, November 10, 2018.

High school students and their families are invited to attend.

- Meet the Chancellor
- Visit with college professors and administrators
- Obtain information from the Office of Admissions, Office of Financial Aid, and Residential Housing
- Enjoy sounds from the “baddest” band in the land – The Human Jukebox, otherwise known as the Southern University Marching Band
- Join in with cheers from Southern University cheerleaders
- Tour one of the most attractive campuses in the South

The Houston Alumni Chapter encourages local students to attend our Alma Mater. We will charter a bus to this event; provide a continental breakfast, lunch, snacks, a T-shirt, and tickets to the Southern University vs. Arkansas Pine Bluff game. The cost is $60 per student.

This fee is Non-refundable.

If you know a high school student who would be interested in attending these festivities, encourage them to pay and reserve a seat as soon as possible. The deadline to reserve seats on the bus is Sunday, October 28, 2018. Sign up early as we anticipate the bus will fill up fast – its first come, first served.

For additional information, permission slips and recruiting trip rules, please visit our website at: www.houstonjaguars.com or e-mail at recruiting@houstonjaguars.com.

We look forward to seeing you.
